INTRODUCING BARRACUDA YACHT DESIGN'S 'SLEEK' 55M MOTORYACHT SO GOOD IT WAS STOPPING PEOPLE IN THEIR TRACKS...

With its distinctive, angular lines and long, elongated side-profile, people were stopping in their tracks at this year's Monaco Yacht Show to admire our 'sleek' 55m motoryacht concept.

Looking more like a potential contender for the next world speed record attempt, first impressions are pleasantly deceptive because this is a very practical, efficient and extremely comfortable 'all-weather', fully customisable sub-500GT design. Based upon a tri-deck layout, the benefit for guests and crew is a more simplified flow pattern throughout the yacht. With the yacht lacking nothing in terms of comfort, the main deck comprises a full beam owner's suite with glorious sea-view terraces on either side. Four symmetrical guest cabins accessed from a central corridor mean guests can walk seamlessly from their cabins via the central hall, straight through in to the main deck saloon, dining area and large aft-deck. Further highlights include a split-level upper deck with access to the bridge, the fly-bridge and an intimate, upper-deck lounge and exclusive viewing area. A lower-deck beach club has 7.20m long 'wings' that open on either side.
