

NEW WEBSITE AND STRONG START TO 2021

At long last, we have finalized the design for our new website and would love to know what you think...

With projects dating from the 1920's to the present day, the scope and sheer diversity of yachts that we have either designed from the ground up, or had some other form of design and engineering involvement with over the past few years, is truly amazing.

Please take a look at www.barracuda-yd.com and let us know if you have any comments, good or bad.

2021 BRING IT ON...

As clients emerge from national lockdowns, we find the market for new and used boats of all kinds is vibrant and demand is incredibly strong.

For many boat builders and refit yards, order books are either full or filling up quickly and, if nothing else, the global pandemic has shown people how the pleasures of boating, in all its forms, offers a safe and assured way of enjoying quality time with family and friends.
